

POLYPHONIC SINGING

with Anita Daulne (BEL)

April 20th - 21st 2024 - VIENNA

ANITA DAULNE (Belgium/Kongo)
Founding member of Zap Mama
- African-European a cappella
women's group from Belgium.
She has created her own musical style, "AfroPean Music", from African music traditions and Western music.

Here is a little insight into the world of polyphonic chants.

"If you can walk you can dance,
if you can talk you can sing."

(Zimbabwe)

Discover the fascinating world of "AfroPean Music" with Anita Daulne, a unique symbiosis of African soul & European sound diversity. Supported by the "Oral Tradition", you will learn how music can come directly from the heart, how rhythms can be felt in the body & how singing together can create profound connections - with the oldest method in the world - call and response.

Everyone who feels inspired is very welcome - previous singing experience is not required, but is also no problem. We are looking forward to it :) The workshop will be held in English.

Times: Saturday 10:00 - 17:00 Uhr / Sunday 10:00 - 17:00 Uhr

Price: € 180.-
